WEEKLY TOPICS AND HIGHLIGHTS

- WEEK ENDING DECEMBER 6TH, 2024

DEAR PARENTS AND GUARDIANS, WE HAD A FANTASTIC WEEK AND IN ASSEMBLY ON FRIDAY WE CELEBRATED A NUMBER OF STUDENT ACHIEVEMENTS AND SHARED IMPORTANT SCHOOL UPDATES. PLEASE SEE BELOW FOR SOME HIGHLIGHTS!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT. WE APPRECIATE YOUR PARTNERSHIP IN CREATING A POSITIVE AND ENRICHING LEARNING ENVIRONMENT FOR OUR STUDENTS.

SINCERELY, NEIL DAVIE, DEPUTY HEADTEACHER.

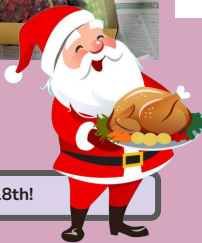

Student Recognition: Abbott's Class Volcano Experiment Mr. Davie praised Abbott's class for their volcano science experiment, which they confirmed was a safe experiment with no real lava! Mr Davie commended Cuckmere class for their den-building activities on their last pajama day, awarding them five flourish points each.

Headteacher and Deputy Head Teacher Awards: Mr Davie announced the winners of the Deputy Head Teacher and Head Teacher awards, Erin and Lewis. He explained that the winners will be entered into a raffle for a takeaway during the Christmas holidays.

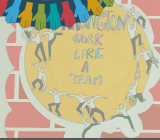

Dojo Champions: Congratulations to our Dojo Champions: Dylan C, John, Vinnie, Kye, Tommy, Georgia-Mae, Lewis, and Junior

Reminder: Ropemakers' Christmas Dinner will be on Wednesday December 18th!

IMPORTANT REMINDERS:

Wednesday, December 18th will be Christmas jumper day! Please bring donations to the local food bank instead of a cash donation.

International Human Rights Day Mr Davie shared that December 10th is International Human Rights Day. He explained that the international community recognizes the right to education as a basic human right.

Severe Weather: Check East Sussex website or listen to local radio for school closures, and we will send an Arbor message out as soon as we know the situation.

Mental Health and Safeguarding: Please remind your children that they can always talk to a trusted staff member or our designated safeguarding leads if they are feeling worried, scared, or confused. Older students can also contact the East Sussex School Health Service for support.
